

Your opportunity . . . . .

No more than four finalists will perform an acoustic set of 10 - 15 minutes before a panel of judges. We do not specify the type of music you have to play except for 'acoustic' so it can be folk, country, jazz, blues etc. If in doubt then please ask.

The final will take the form of a formal concert and all acts entering this free competition should:

- provide a recording with a least 3 tracks. Note you are not judged on the recordings technical quality.
- have personnel aged 12-21 at April 16th 2010
- not consist of more than 6 musicians
- have performed in public before e.g. singers club, local events or concert support
- consist of a 'stable' line-up so as to be considered for any future gigs
- accept that the line-up that is playing on the recording is the only one allowed to participate in the final
- accept that recordings can not be returned
- accept that any publicity or recordings generated may be used at our discretion to promote this and our future activities
- be aware that they are agreeing to perform at a major festival should they be fortunate enough to win
- be aware that the aim of the competition is to enhance their 'performance' skills in front of a live audience
- accept that the judges decision is final

Prizes:

◆ Appearance on Wath Folk Festival main stage on the Sunday night

◆ Tokens from The Music Room
(Also prizes for all finalists subject to confirmation of sponsorship).

General enquiries: pete@thebpasgroup.co.uk. or (01709) 739093. Applicants will be informed before April 23rd as regards the finalists.
